2. Then sup-pose you're en-gaged to be mar-ried

At the high cost of but-ter and clothes. When will the pric-es be And your head's in a fear-ful whirl. Cu-pid to keep your love low-er, It's the sub-ject which no-bod-y knows And what a-bout burn-ing. Says that grate fires must burn on as well So keep down the coal for the win-ter To buy it will break your bank roll, So the high cost of lov-ing But let not your com-fort have end, For the way to e-con-o-mize heat-ing, Is to use NU-KOL. fi-res of love will keep burn-ing, With your NU-KOL friend.
